

CERAMIC STUDY GROUP Inc.

Izette Felthun

Izette Felthun is a Sydney based artist and educator. She studied BA (Creative Arts) at University of Stellenbosh, South Africa. After immigrating to Australia, Izette completed an Advanced Diploma in Ceramics at The Northern Sydney Institute TAFE, Hornsby Campus NSW.

She has always felt a great sense of joy and fulfilment in working with clay. Her vessel sculptures are simplified to accentuate the essence of the figure. The juxtaposition of line and softer curves invites the eye to engage with the sculptural aesthetics of the form.

Izette's interest is in exploring the human condition, the unpredictable life that combines energetic forces and the social and organic forces that exist in fragile equilibrium.

CSG Wednesday September 18th 2019

Come and join us at 16a Balcombe Heights Estate where Izette will talk about her preoccupation and obsession with the process of Raku. She will demonstrate the processes of clay preparation, building the forms and preparing the surfaces for firing. The process of the Raku firing including Naked Raku and the transformative effects of the smoke will be explained in depth.
