

CERAMIC STUDY GROUP Inc.

Emma Bartik

Voluptuary Ceramics

Wednesday, 20th May 2026

commencing at 7.45pm

Voluptuary Ceramics is a sculptural object studio that blurs the line between function and fantasy.

Founded in 2019, Emma Bartik reimagines everyday objects through surreal, colourful forms. Each piece is handcrafted in her Marrickville studio on Gadigal land.

Emma will take us through her ceramic journey, from study to running a studio and shopfront in Marrickville. She will cover selling work at markets and online, opening her studio and hosting events that showcase other artists.

This promises to be a memorable evening, so do come along.
